

Man With a Harmonica (Ennio Morricone)

Hello, friend.

This is Luciano Renan here.

This is my arrangement for Classical Guitar from the great theme of the classic western movie 'Once Upon a Time In The West':

"Man With a Harmonica".

As all the other western Morricone themes this theme is so epic and I'm very glad to be sharing these notes with you now.

Compared with other arrangements, this one is not so technically difficult because the tempo of the music is slow and you won't have to make fast note changes.

But the feeling is very important to play this theme and to make it sounds nice.

Even when you're playing a slow music, you must give attention to every note. All of them are important. So, give your best and enjoy playing this epic music.

I suggest you to watch the original video to give you an idea of interpretation and help you to find the best fingering and shapes from the chords. Here's the link:
